

Ritz-Carlton villas among world's best

MANAMA: The villas of The Ritz-Carlton, Bahrain Hotel and Spa have been named one of the "Top 101 Hotel Suites in the World" by the US magazine Elite Traveler in its latest issue.

"We are proud being honored with such a great recognition for our unique suite product, the villas, offering a tranquil haven with breathtaking views over the Arabian Gulf. The luxurious villas have been elevated to a class of its own to fulfil its vision of becoming one of the best resort destinations worldwide," said general manager Bernard N Viola.

Elite Traveler, published in New York, is a worldwide bi-monthly luxury travel and lifestyle magazine for the private jet lifestyle.

The villas at The Ritz-Carlton, Bahrain Hotel and Spa exude a relaxed elegance throughout. Low-lying, surrounded by azure waters, each has a distinctive identity and allure.

The three-bedroom hideaways are housed within 23 villas and their warm, refined atmosphere is characterised by the simplicity of their earth-tone rooms. Each villa offers more than 400 square metres.
