

Qatar- Royal Villa voted among best in the world
The Peninsula - 27/08/2008

(MENAFN - The Peninsula) Recognised for its luxurious facilities and grand furnishings, the Royal Villa at Sharq Village and Spa has been named among the best suites in the world.

This coveted accolade was recently awarded by US publication Elite Traveler in their 'Top 101 Hotel Suites in the World' feature. This prestigious magazine from New York is an international bi-monthly luxury travel and lifestyle magazine.

"The Royal Villa at Sharq Village and Spa is truly exceptional and we are privileged to be able to offer our esteemed guests such a unique and authentic Arabian experience," said General Manager Hossein Vetry.

Bestowed the Arabic name Beit Al Shyoukh which aptly translates to "House of Royalty", the Royal Villa is the preferred accommodation for visiting heads of states, corporate titans and celebrities to Doha.

Operated by The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company, B V, Sharq Village and Spa is a luxury beachfront property situated on the Arabian Gulf, 15 minutes from the city centre.

Modelled after a traditional Qatari village, the 174 room resort blends authentic Arabian architecture with the very latest in modern comforts and amenities.

Services and facilities include restaurants and lounges serving Middle Eastern and Western cuisine with outdoor dining options, a cigar lounge and rooftop shisha terrace; a 6,500 sq metre Six Senses Spa with 23 treatment rooms, private ladies' areas, and two outdoor pools; and over 1,130 sq metres of conference space that includes two magnificent ballrooms, a boardroom and a grand reception foyer.
