Maui, Big Isle hotels make top suites list

Pacific Business News (Honolulu)

Two Hawaii hotels are on a list of the best hotel and resort suites worldwide.

Elite Traveler, a worldwide private-jet lifestyle magazine listed the "101 Top Hotel/Resort Suites of the Year" in its July/August issue.

The Grand Suite at the Grand Wailea Resort and Spa on Maui, with a $15,000 a night price tag, and The Presidential Villa at the Four Seasons Resort Hualalai on the Big Island, at a rate of $10,300 a night, were named to the top suites in North America list. The suite at the Grand Wailea was noted as one of the most expensive in the United States.

Elite said that while approximately one-third of the suites on the list cost over $10,000 a night, the suites also made the list for their service, amenities, style and location.
