Dear Doug,

I just wanted to let you know how happy Lufthansa is with our partnership with Luxus Networks.

As you know, we have just completed a comprehensive program at your East 34th Street Heliport location in Manhattan, including signage and merchandising. We were able to see first hand that the terminal is an excellent marketing venue and the customers were highly qualified and receptive to our message.

Lufthansa has set itself apart from other airlines with our Lufthansa Private Jet, our First Class Terminal in Frankfurt and Munich and our array of premium products. Luxus has proven to be a perfect partner to hit this exclusive target.

Yours truly,

Lori Schultz
