Dear Dana,

I am certainly in your ballpark when it comes to believing in ELITE TRAVELER. We had so many calls from the editorial mention in the magazine, and they were not just inquiries. We sold two of the Orange Sapphire and Diamond chronograph watches you featured, at $40,000 a piece, and had many people ask for more information about the Harry Winston watches.

ELITE is a great vehicle, and I would highly recommend it to anyone who is targeting the luxury market. You bring a level of style to your reader that is unsurpassed in the market today. Keep up the good work.

My best regards,

Jon Omer
