Dear Doug,

We just got a great booking for The Ranch At Rock Creek out of Elite Traveler. A couple flying in their personal jet saw the ad and decided to make a pit stop in Montana to check us out. He is the CEO of a large corporation and will book us for a buddy trip, another trip with his girlfriend as well as an executive retreat. They also ended up spending a great deal on reserve wines and in our mercantile.

Sincerely,

JoAnn Kurtz-Ahlers
