THE MASTER BEDROOM

TOP SUITE: PENTHOUSE

Square footage: 1,500

Nightly rate: From $550 through the summer;
from $899 in the winter

Number of rooms in suite: Five

Number of baths: Two

Suite style: The Osprey underwent a $7 million transformation featuring a sophisticated alpine-chic design, including the penthouse suite with its contemporary decor. Rooms in the newly-redesigned suite incorporate elegant furnishings and rich natural materials like birch wood, iron and onyx.

Key selling points: The Penthouse provides guests with the ultimate in cold-weather comforts: Whether it's a soak in the private Jacuzzi or an evening spent in front of the fireplace, visitors can relax and unwind luxuriously.

Standout service: Indoor and outdoor activities available in Beaver Creek and Vail are at your fingertips throughout your stay, thanks to The Osprey's signature 24-hour concierge service. In the winter months, "Ski Valets" will store and prepare your gear for the slopes, and provide hot cocoa and other beverages at the chairlift base. The Osprey is the closest hotel to a chairlift in North America.

ACCOMMODATIONS

After a long day on the slopes, guests in any of The Osprey's 47 rooms will luxuriate in such comforts as fine linens, plush RockResorts® bathrobes, and a customizable mini-bar, well-stocked to guests' specifications. Eco-conscious visitors will appreciate the hotel's concerted efforts to reduce their carbon footprint—like using only Forest Stewardship Council-certified wood and energy-efficient lighting—without sacrificing an ounce of style and comfort. The hotel is also 100% powered by wind.

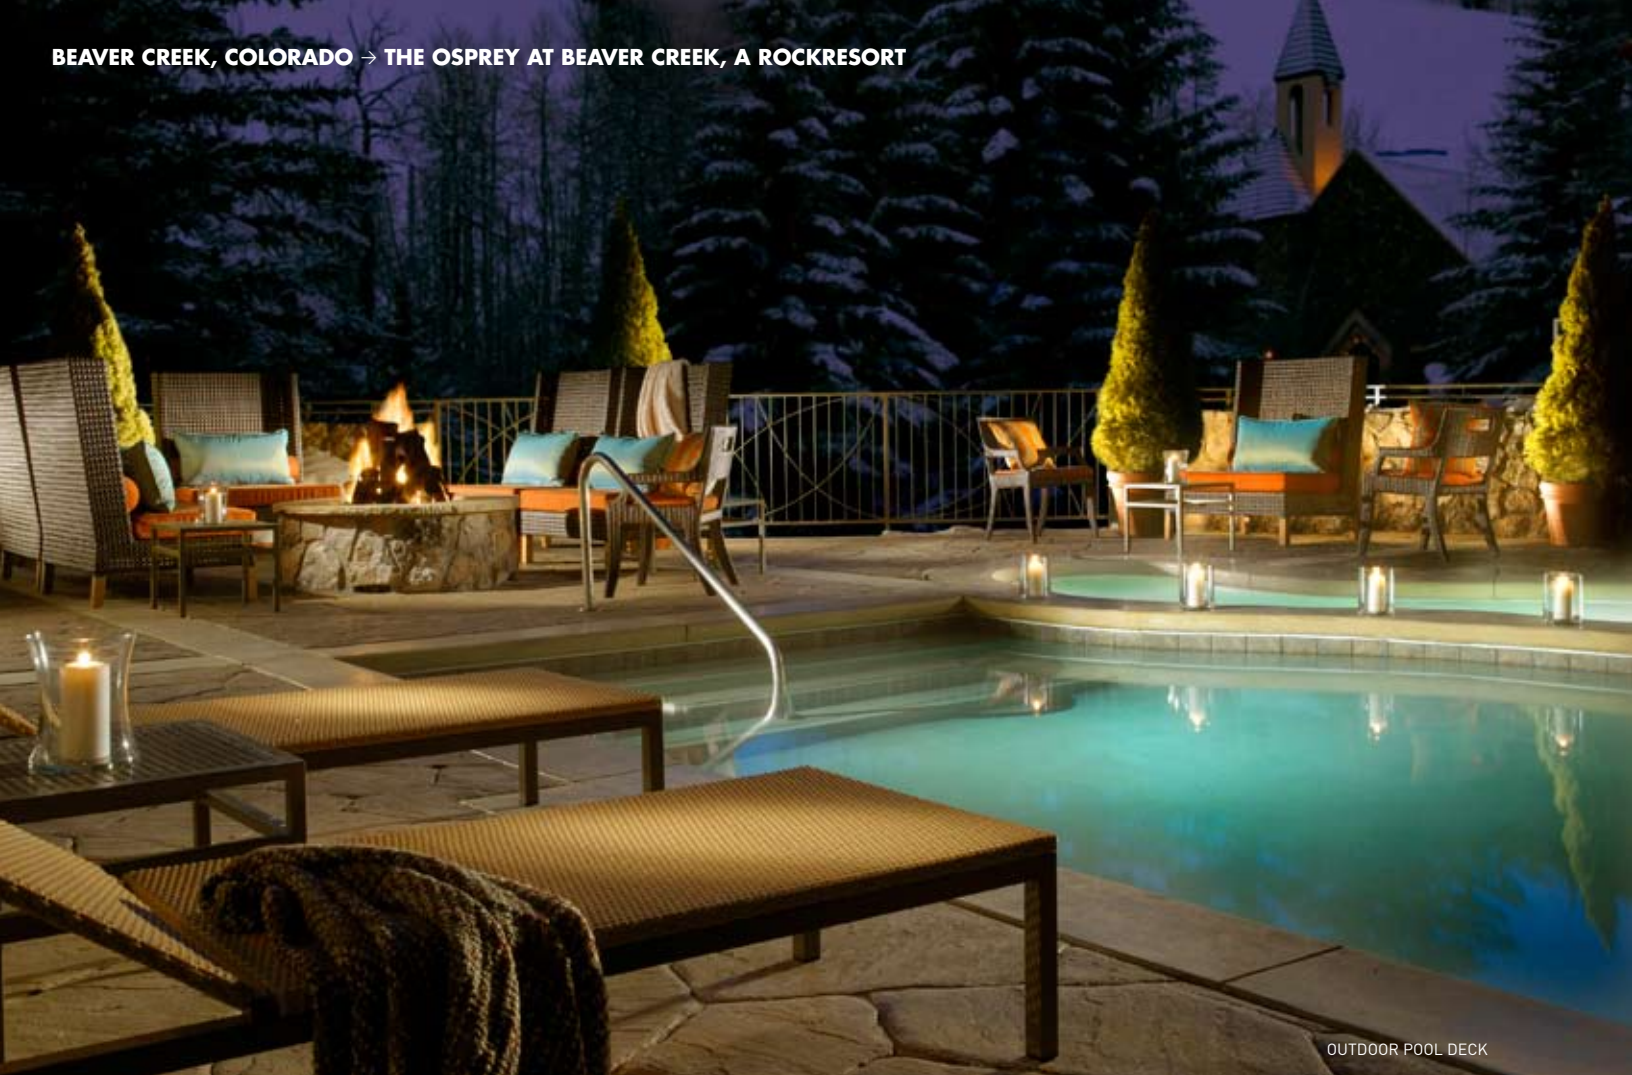

GUEST BATHROOM

RESIDENCES

The Osprey offers two residences for guests, each equipped with two generously-sized bedrooms that house up to six guests. With full access to the hotel's impressive amenities, plus the same comforts you would expect at home—such as a gourmet kitchen and spacious living room—these long-term accommodations provide the best of both worlds.

TOP RESTAURANT

THE OSPREY LOUNGE: Conveniently located in the lobby, the onsite restaurant serves up tasty, tapas-style fare in a casually chic setting. As part of the hotel's commitment to sustainable cuisine, all meat and dairy products are certified organic and hormone-free. Executive Chef Michael Wilganowski's menu puts a modern spin on classic comfort food: Recent indulgences have included lobster nachos and a grilled brie sandwich. To complement the eclectic and ever-changing menu, the wine list is carefully designed, and boasts a number of organic varieties, including Bonterra. Fuel up with a hot breakfast before hitting the slopes or unwind at sunset with one of the signature cocktails, stirred up by the bar staff.

FACILITIES

If you'd rather not brave the great outdoors, The Osprey offers plenty of other ways to have fun. In the large Living Room, guests can catch a classic movie on the flatscreen TV or play a board game by the fire. For the young ones—or just the young at heart—a Wii gaming system will provide endless entertainment. The namesake Lounge is more than just an après-ski eatery—it's also the site of the hotel's popular mixology classes, where guests can learn the secrets behind The Osprey's signature drinks and whip up a few of their own. Fitness buffs will love the hotel's well-equipped gym, which boasts a steam room and sauna for post-workout relaxation.

SKIING

Of course skiing is tops at Beaver Creek Mountain, where the sun shines an average of 275 days a year and a seemingly endless terrain of fresh powder is just moments away: The Osprey boasts the closest ski in/ski out hotel to a chair lift in all of North America, so guests can hit the slopes hassle-free. you're a skiing enthusiast or just starting out, you'll find trails of all levels, from beginner to Birds of Prey, the renowned World Cup course. If you're looking to brush up on your skills, both group and private lessons are available through the Vail and Beaver Creek Ski & Snowboard School, as are intensive racing clinics for those with a competitive streak. No matter what your level of expertise may be, The Osprey's personal helmet cams, available for rent from the concierge, are a must for capturing vacation memories.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

For those seeking something a little different, a whole host of winter sports awaits you during the peak season: Adventurous types will love test-driving a set of snowshoes, a snowmobile or even a dogsled team. A 150- by 65-foot skating rink is open year-round, and features a free showcase every Monday night during the wintertime for aspiring champion figure skaters to show off their skills. If you're looking for an unconventional means of transportation, hot air ballooning and sleigh rides are also on the list of options.
