TOP RESTAURANTS

The St. Regis Bar: As with all St. Regis Hotel bars, The St. Regis Atlanta’s namesake bar created its own Bloody Mary, a tradition since 1934 that has remained a signature of the St. Regis brand. At The St. Regis Atlanta, their version, named the “West Paces Mary,” contains a unique blend of spices and a pickled green tomato garnish.

The Wine Room: Offering personalized wine tastings around a mahogany marble-topped sommelier counter where guests can enjoy wine flights and tasting menus at their leisure. The Wine Room is also available for private functions.

Paces 88 American Bistro: Serving breakfast, lunch and dinner in a soothing setting of champagne, taupe and mineral green hues highlighted by natural light flooding in from the floor-to-ceiling windows with views of the landscaped gardens. Paces 88 offers refined American dishes with distinct local flavor. The cuisine, conceived by Chef de Cuisine Mark Alba, evolves with the season and features simple, yet flavorful components, imaginative pairings and unique presentations. Though seasonally-inspired, the menu at Paces 88 always offers an assortment of salads, fresh fish, meats and mouth-watering desserts.

Afternoon Tea: The St. Regis carries on the tradition of high tea, served daily at the Long Galley overlooking the Lobby’s elegant curved staircase. An assortment of tea sandwiches, freshly baked scones, tea cakes, seasonal jams and chutneys, petit fours and other desserts are offered. Afternoon Tea includes hot and cold international teas, as well as a medley of traditional black, white and green teas.
