

THE TERRACE IN THE MANOR HOUSE SUITE

TUCKER'S POINT HOTEL & SPA

With a nod to Bermuda's golden days—an era when guests traveled by private yachts, Pan Am Clippers, and horse-drawn carriages—the all-new Tucker's Point Hotel & Spa, opened in spring 2009, blends old-world glamour with 21st-century technology. This luxury resort, the first of its kind on the island in 37 years, is credited with starting a kind of renaissance in Bermuda tourism: take a tour around this sweeping property, located above the 17th-century anchorage of Castle Harbour, and it's easy to see why.

Number of baths: One and a half

Suite style: The trademark elegant yet unstuffy décor and fine linens found throughout Tucker's Point Hotel & Spa make it easy to feel at home in the Manor House Suite. Bespoke furniture and unique artwork give every room an injection of style. A decadently spacious five-fixture bathroom, constructed with cool marble and decorated in soothing shades, boasts a stand-alone deep soaking tub, shower, and illuminated vanity mirrors for posh primping.

Key selling points: The suite provides comforts like a wet bar with ice maker, making for easy evening entertaining. An expansive terrace creates a stunning showcase for views of the crystalline waters below.

Standout services: Expect nothing but the best from the professional concierge at Tucker's Point, who are on call 24 hours a day to meet guests' every need. Thoughtful touches like twice-daily housekeeping service and a convenient resort tram that operates continuously throughout the property make this service second to none.

Number of suites in hotel: Six

TOP RESTAURANTS

THE POINT: For fine dining, look no further than the resort's premier restaurant, overseen by Executive Chef Serge Bottelli. Murals of the world's major ports painted by Gerard Henderson adorn the walls, adding a maritime touch to the elegant ambience. With a wood-truss ceiling, dramatic fireplace, and seating for 92, The Point's cozy yet sophisticated setting invites patrons to relax and enjoy an expertly-prepared meal. The unique "Land" and "Sea" tasting menus offer five sumptuous courses for those seeking an exceptional culinary experience.

PERGOLA TERRACE: On a warm summer evening, nothing beats dining al fresco on the Pergola Terrace, where you can savor a stunning sunset view and a light meal. Located just steps from the Palm Court pool, here you'll dine under a canopy of wisteria and bougainvillea blossoms, while gas lanterns help the stars light up the night sky.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The style in all of the hotel's 88 rooms is British, by way of Bermuda: stately architecture and refined décor are tempered by whimsical touches like walking sticks and butterfly nets. Visitors need not leave the world completely behind them while on their island retreat: modern amenities, from IP-TV to iPod/MP3 docking stations, are available to all guests. Complimentary extras like Lili Bermuda bath products and high-speed Wi-fi ensure that every stay is a truly memorable one.

FACILITIES

Active types will appreciate the resort's 24-hour fitness center—2,000 square feet packed with the latest equipment, from LifeFitness cardio machines to Tuff Stuff weight gear. Between the hours of 6 am to 10 pm, guests can utilize one of the center's Certified Fitness Attendants or Personal Trainers to help meet their goals, and even customize a get-fit routine to continue when they return home. Gorgeous panoramic views of the Palm Court Pool might just be all the motivation you need.

A visit to the Dive and Watersports Centre where you'll find motorboats, sailboats, kayaks and a children's water park, not to mention scuba instruction, is a must for all outdoor enthusiasts. Board the 31-foot Tidal Pull—which takes aspiring deep-sea explorers to sites of shipwrecks, underwater caves, and coral reef—to satisfy your thirst for adventure.

SPA

The 12,000-square foot spa offers separate salons for both sexes, ensuring that all guests can keep themselves in head-to-toe top form. For women, manicures, pedicures, and a full menu of hair services are available, using products from cult favorite labels like Shu Uemura and Kérastase. A barber shop gets the gents well-groomed with help from Italian shave- and skin-care line Hommage. To ensure both body and mind are rejuvenated, luxe massages and body wraps are carried out in one of eight serene treatment rooms. An exclusive Silver Tag shower—one of only three in the world—makes for an invigorating start to any treatment. Après-spa, guests can lounge by a reflecting pool surrounded by magnificent palms, or opt for a private lounge instead.

GOLF

When it comes to teeing off, the Tucker's Point Golf Club is tops: With a shop that carries beloved labels like Burberry, a driving range and practice area for pre-game warmups, and a knowledgeable, passionate staff, it's got everything you need to perfect your game. After a day on the Roger Rulewich-designed, 18-hole championship course, enjoy a laid-back meal at the Clubhouse Grille Room.
